The Empress Eugenie, five and twenty years ago counted one of the handsomest women in Europe, is said to be badly broken down. Though still young enough in years, the once glossy nut-brown tresses are faded white by grief and reverse of fortune. The transparent beauty is spoiled, the frame curved and wasted. Latterly her health has been failing, and the gloom which fell upon her life after the fatality in South Africa rises at intervals, so that ahe remains confin-ed to her chamber. The accidental fall on the stairs in her new house in the West End still further shook the weakened nerves, and, although no bodily injury to speak of was sustained, her health has suffered since a great deal. The constant visits from members of the royal family of England are among the greatest comforts the lonely and exiled sovereign pos-

Steam vessels for whaling have proved highly profitable. The first one ever sent out from the Pacific coast ever sent out from the Pacific coast was the Mary and Helen, which cleared enough last year to pay her entire cost and $40,000 besides. The second venture, that of the Belvidere, has just come back from a vovage of only six months with $100,000 worth of oil above the investment. The great success of these steamers is likely to revive the business of whaling.

Owing to the total failure of the fisheries, the population of the island of Anticosti, in the Gult of St. Lawrence, have become so poverty strick-en that the Marine and Fisheries Department have had to remove them to Quebec in Government steamers.

A Chicago druggist sold to a freekled girl a lotion which he warranted would remove the blemishes from her face. And so it did, but is also bur-

Some years ago Miss Libbie Minkler of Rochelle, Ill., lost both arms by falling in front of a reaper. To-day she is earning a good living by oil painting, holding the brush in her teeth.

DOES NEVADA THINK

Delegate McGinnis, of Montana, has proposed an excellent way to put State of Nevada, the southeastern when it is done the Mormon power will be broken. A part of the Mormon population would then be citizens of Nevada, and would be then only in the minority of the whole State, and part become citizens of Colorado, and would be in the minority there. The main portion of the Mormon population would thus become citizens of fast, conversing cheerfully with his atthe States which have already established constitutions and laws, to which the Mormons would of course be amendable. McGinnis remarks that such a division of Utah, and distribution of its parts would not only be perfectly legal and proper, but would have the advantage that the new boundry would be natural instead of artificial.

"The mere fact that they are shipwrecked seamen," he says, "would guarantee that. As to their journey homeward, their best route is Moscow, and so far from its being one of difficulty or discomfert, it is one of absolute pleasure. I never enjoyed anything more in my life than my sleigh ride from Irkutak to Moscow. The distance is about three thousand. five hundred miles, and the journey consumed twenty-seven days. Sometimes the mercury was 200 below zero, but the air was dry and still."

The Ends of Justice Satisfied. St. Louis, January 6.

Two murderers, Joseph Michael Kotovsky and Charles Ellis, the latter colored, were executed in jail this morping. Both men went to bed early last night. Ellis slept until nearly 5 o'clock, but Kotovsky arose at 3 a. M. He complained of having passed a carried on, Robeson, Haskell, Kelly restless night. They then passed the and Dunnell coming forward on the Perublican side, and Randolph on time in prayer and religious exercises with Revs. Dr. Boyd, Clagget and others. They partook of a light breaka stop to the Mormon power of Utah fast, and then conversed with Barber polygamy, and to place polygamous and Ward, who are to be hung next friday. The clergyman walked to the law. His proposition is to let Congress divide the Territory of Utah incorporate the western part with the firmly. They made no remarks on the scaffold, and at 8:55 both were part with the State of Colorado, and a flung into eternity. Ellis' neck was small northern part with Idaho and broken, but Katovsky slowly strangled. The grinding of his teeth and power to do this. It is evident that hard breathing could be plainly heard for some minutes.

Abbott arose at 6 o'clock and partook of a hearty breaktendants and friends up to the time of the execution. The rope was cut by the Sheriff at 11:15 and the prisoner dropped about four feet. JERSEY CITY, N. J., January 6. Martin Kankowsky was executed in Hudson County jail shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, for the murder of Rino Miller in the woods near Gutenburg, in May last. Kankowsky, as he passed the deputies, on the way to the scaffold, exclaimed in German "No, no. I am innocent." Arriving under the scaffold, he stood up bravely and throwing back his head, exclaim ed in a loud, firm voice: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, I am innocent of this thing. Father forgive me and those who brought this disgrace upon the State of New Jersey." The Sheriff then pulled the cap over his face and while the noose was being adjusted, Kankowsky seemed about to fall, but instantly recovered his nerve, and stood erect. At 10:16 the trigger was sprung. Kankowsky was jerked about eight feet into the air, breaking his neck instantly. He made one single convulsive movement, and all was over. His body was delivered to his spiritual adviser, Rev. Mr. Moss, who will have it interred in a corner of Weetawken cemetery. *

Scoville and Reed's Points,

Washington, January 6. Scoville and Reed last night finished their preparation of prayers to be offered by the defense to the Court for instructions to the jury. There are fourteen prayers. The main points raised are that the legal testimony is whether the act was done as the result of an insane delusion or committee under an influence or power which the accused could not resist, by reason of his unsoundness of mind. if the accused would not have done the act but for such insune delusion he is not guilty of the crime charged against him, That if the jury have reasonable doubts as to the insanity of the accused, they should give him the benefit of their doubts; that the jury may take isto account the manifestations and feelings on the part of the witness; that the jury have a right to consider the suppression of evidence by the prosecution as raising the presumption that such evidence, if produced, would be unfavorable to the prosecution; that if the jury believed the prisoner of sound mind, but without malace in the commission of the act, they should render a verdict of manslaughter; that the jury should find a verdict of "not guilty" upon the courts indictment, representing that the death of the President occurred in the District of Columbia; that the knowledge that his act was contrary to law would not make the accused liable to pualshment if be did it under the insane delusion that it was commanded by God.

THE SUN. NEW YORK.

Tun Sun of 1881 will be the same outspoken, trata-telling and interesting newspaper. By a liberal use of the means which as abundant prosperity affords, we shall make it better than ever before.

We shall print all the news, putting it into readable shape, she measuring its importance, not by the traditional yardatick, but by its real linerest to the people. Distance from Printing House Square is not the first consideration with Tun Stra. Whenever anything happens worth reporting we get the particulars, whether it happens in Brooklyn or Bokhara.

nappens worth reporting we get the particulars, whether it happens in Brooklyn or Bokhara.

In politics we have decided opinions; and are accretomed to express them in language nat can be understood. We say what we think about wen and events. That habit is the only secret of The Sun's political course. The Werkelt Sun gathers into eight pages the best matter of the seven daily issues. An Agricultural Department of nnequaled merit, full market reports, and a liberal proportion of literary, scientific and demestic latelligence complete the Werkelt Sun, and make it the best newspaper for the larmer's household that was ever printed.

Who does not know and read and like 7 ms Sundar Sun, each number of which is a folloonds of interesting literature, with the best poetry of the day, prose every line worth reading, news, humor—matter exough to dil a good-eized book, and infinitely more varied and entertaining than any book, bug or little?
